

Letter to Richard Southey, 4 March 1862

David Livingstone

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org), 2020

[0001]

R. Zambesi 4th March
1862

My Dear Sir

many thanks
for your kind attentions to M^r L & self in sending the letters & Newspapers which came all safely
to hand - The mules too were in excellent condition and seem fine strong animals - The carts & harness all right - By the kind assistance of Captain Wilson & his officers
we had the greater part of the hull put aboard
the Pioneer but the Zambesi is in high
flood and more rapid
than we ever saw it

[0002]

It is indeed far too strong a current for the Pioneer with 35 tons in her, so after spending 3 weeks in getting up to Shupanga
we are obliged to unload -
put the hull together & tow her ^ the new one up to the cataracts - This will detain us till may -

Seeing that we made
such miserably slow
progress Captain Wilson

acceded to the request of Miss Mackenzie to be taken forward to the bishop in his gig - The bishop was not found at the Ruvo as he engaged

[0003]

to be and we hear by the return of one boat from Shire the Captain had gone on to near the cataracts where he would send up for the bishop and deliver up his charge - she is very weakly at best
and was ill when they were kept by the return boat. There is no doubt but Ladies would be a great boon to the mission if they were strong as Mrs.Burrupe
appears to be, but Miss Mackenzie's is a peculiar case &
I have my fears

[0004]

Believe me
Dear Sir

Most Truly yours

David Livingstone

[...] Esq.