Kuruman November 24th 1852

My Dear M<sup>r</sup> Thompson

Am sorry to say I am still here in durance vile - but matters are in a fair way now for effecting my escape I could not get drivers - people were all so afraid of going Northward - I have made arrangements with two Hottentots and think I shall be off positively before the next moon - the delays which have occurred have prevented me falling into Boerish hands so I am thankful and indulge the hope that God has still some little work for me to do - The belief that my hindrances from the Cape off to the Kuruman are providential makes me submit with a good grace -

Fine fellows you Cape worthies are M<sup>r</sup> Fairbairn tells his contemporaries that the connection of the Dutch Church with the state is very slender - and you believe it of course - They get £200 per annum and the state appoints the ministers - or has all the patronage in its hands - our connection with the society is half as slight again for we only get £100

I have sent a paper on the Caffre war to the B. Quart. - If this is blabbed by the D<sup>r</sup> I shall not write any more for him

[0002]

He of course knows what sort of people he is speaking to - Humph. Sir George C. tells the Caffres that they may recieve the Goika warriors into their houses - Receipt of stolen goods is no crime in his eyes Its for any sake take them away - I can't beat them. Boohoo O thou mighty man of valour that's "extermination" "driving over the Kei" - "unconditional submission" "complete subjugation" - and £500 for Nitboalders head too - I intend to offer

£5000 for the Lions Head which looks down at Church square - saw Lion's head to be delivered at Lattakoo and I give you the first offer - What unutterable meanness this Sir George Gibbet Cathcart can be guilty of - & a Scotchman too - Did I not tell you we Scotchmen are a bad set - I dont understand your questions about responsibility - the superintendent will get all the blame of everything bad if he allows the committees to do wrong I think the Directors will do so - In Africa we all blame each other and we are blamed by every body else - Make them all independant thats my advice D Livingstone

P.S. By this post I send 10 letters addressed to your care and Post paid as far as Cape Town. There is no use in attempting to pay beyond that - You must open an account against me and put down Postage - Forage and all other monies expended on my behalf - I enclose a letter to M<sup>r</sup> Macgibbon of the Botanic gardens and if you can spare time to glance over it you may oblige me in one of your walks next winter by putting him in remembrance

Macgibbon's letter contains seeds. 2 of the above named letters are for yourself. I say "put down all monies &c." What hypocrisy! if honest I would say you may either put it down or not I see no prospect of ever paying you - If I live to come back to Cape Town I shall get a share of M<sup>r</sup> Moll's parlour in the house by the jetty or a lodging in the Union Workhouse Please request M<sup>r</sup> Pococke to get a supply of vaccine virus from the institution for me

[0005]

I forgot it - If you are acquainted with the officer he will do it better & send it post free - I shall probably draw £12 for Mebaloe - This is all the business I have to transact or trouble you with One of the letters is for America through Captain Holmes & you ^ will perhaps be good enough to present my kind remembrance to him - As the post is not going for an hour or two I may have time to write another letter, which will

be eleven. to your care
